ATC-ONLANE AWARDED WHEELS, INC. OUTSTANDING QUALITY AWARD FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

ATC-Online Recognized for Quality of Service and Dedication to the Customer

MENLO PARK, Calif., September 13, 2006 —ATC-Online, the largest online auction company in North America for automotive dealers to purchase and wholesale vehicles, today announced it has been awarded the 2006 Wheels, Inc. Outstanding Quality Award for its exemplary performance and contribution to Wheels' remarketing process. The award was presented to ATC-Online last week by Wheels Inc., a leader in the automotive fleet management industry, at the National Association of Fleet Resale Dealers' (NAFRD) 22nd Annual Conference held in Las Vegas.

“ATC-Online has been providing remarketing services to Wheels for four years and, in turn, has contributed to increasing our operational efficiency, while reducing costs,” said Darrin Aiken, assistant vice president, Vehicle Operations – Remarketing at Wheels, Inc. “ATC-Online, a worthy recipient of this award, has a proven track record of superior customer service with flexibility to deliver customized solutions.”

Through continuous monitoring of performance reports and benchmarking results, Wheels manages its network of vendors to ensure its clients' best interests are being served. ATC-Online is one of approximately 140 service providers, including both auctions and wholesale dealers, within Wheels' remarketing network.

“We are thrilled to be recognized for the second consecutive year by Wheels for an award that emphasizes excellence in quality and customer service,” said Clive Kinross, of ATC-Online. “Receiving this accolade for our work within the auto remarketing industry is a result of our approach toward customers as true partners, and affirms our vision of creating a marketplace built upon win-win solutions.”
